Letter to the Public

Dear Friend,

Your presence is again desired at the August meeting of the Black Political Caucus. It will be held at the Esquire Restaurant, 1519 Broadway, Tacoma, Washington, at 12:00 noon August 30th. Our guest wpeakers will be State Senator George Fleming and Seattle City Councilman Sam Smith.

As you know we are in the midst of a very hot City Council race with some very viable Black Candidates: We must get involved. There will be a reception for all City Council candidates after the meeting from 2:00 until 4:00.

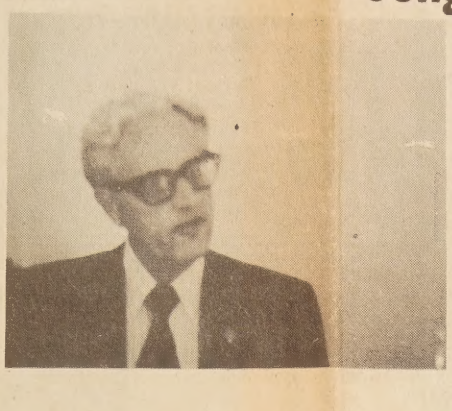
Come out and meet the people who wish to represent you. This will be our last meeting before the primary elections. The committee for the EPC Bean Feed would like to thank every one of you who responded to our first fund raiser. It was very successful. We will now be able to "put our money where our mouths are."

If you wish to become a member of the Candidate Evaluation Committee, give your name to the secretary at the meeting. This committee will evaluate the candidates who survive the primary and decide who best will serve the interest of the Black Minority Community.

See you Saturday at 12:00 noon and plan to stay for the reception if possible.

Sincerely,
Virginia Taylor,
Black Political Caucus

Congressman Hicks Visits CAAC



By Andre Young

Congressman Floyd V. Hicks, of the 6th congressional district, accepted an invitation from CAAC on August 18, 1975, "to hear the vehement grievances about federal agencies' neglect, to enforce equal opportunity legislation and regulations."

A meeting room full of citizens heard John Pope, director of the Citizens Affirmative Action Council, give an overview of several requests for "investigations to be held of federal contractors and public employers believed to be out of compliance with federal equal opportunity regulations, manely the Hometown Plan in Pierce County." The Hometown Plan, known as the Philadelphia Plan, and nationally designed to bring minorities and women into the construction crafts through apprenticeship programs, "has not reported to the Office of Federal Contract Compliance (OFCC) in three years substantial information and OFCC hasn't conducted a review of the entire construction crafts and signatory to the plan to participate on a voluntary basis to utilize minorities and women in the crafts under Part I of the plan has not worked" claimed Pope.

CAAC has requested that Part II of the Hometown plan be put into effect as ordered by the Supreme Court nationally to communities with similar problems. Part II of the Hometown Plan would require each craft contractor to adopt an affirmative action plan to utilize a proportionate number of women and minorities that are in the labor market to be in compliance with federal contract regulations.

Tom Hilyard, CAAC Board President candidly exclaimed to Congressman Hicks that "CAAC doesn't know if the Port of Tacoma is in compliance with Executive Order 11246 and the 1964 Civil Rights Act. Since the federal compliance agencies refuse to do their job," or as an unidentified citizen said, "Just plain lie to the people about what the process and recourse any citizen has when bringing forth a civil rights complaint."

"Compliance agencies are a bureaucracy that's making money for nothing," said Bill Gilven. Citizens Affirmative Action Council director Pope further stated that it was not an isolated case that the Department of Labor (DOL) is faced with, but the same is true for the other 13 compliance agencies delegated the same affirmative action responsibility by the DOL. Pope said, "OFCC ignores the same responsibility DOL does because of political influences not to severe federal contract relations and understaffing."

It is gross federal administration neglect and insensitivity to the situations of the effected class, which, aided by inflation and doubling the unemployment rate, could leac to social unrest eventually as in Boston. Congress and the compliance agencies have the answer. Congressman Hicks has the information. Only time will tell the outcome.

Tacoma Urban League to Start Tutoring Program

During the past school year, Dr. Alex Sergienko, Superintendant of Tacoma Public Schools, reported low academic achievement by Tacoma School District Number #10 students as compared to national testing result norms.

The Tacoma Urban Leager Cross-Age Tutoring Program has taken steps to initiate a "Back to the Basics" policy in education.

To implement the 1975-76 Cross-Age Tutoring Program, now in its third year of service to Tacoma's Junior and Senior High Schools Students, the program has totally revamped its reading materials and classroom structure.

The reading materials are designed to stimulate interest in reading and raising student reading achievement by at least two years. Tenth and Seventh graders will be tutored by Twelfth and Ninth graders on a one-to-one basis in six Tacoma Schools - Lincoln, Stadium, Foss, Stewart, Truman and Hunt.

Project Director, Lawanna Lee recommended Cross-Age Tutoring to all students who need help in basic reading skills. For information about the program, please phone 383-3007 and ask for Dave Heckman or Lawanna Lee.

The Cross-Age Tutoring Program is a Tacoma Urban Leader in education.

New Appointee at T.C.C.

THE REWARDS OF APATHY

Apathy has a lot going for it.

It is easy to catch and is painless. You can ignore it and nothing happens.

The stronger it gets the less you feel you need to do about it.

It becomes most noticeable when it begins to spread over a large area.

When it does, the individual usually feels it belongs to someone else.

Another appealing thing about apathy is the warm glow of nothingness it gives.

The temptation is to leave it alone and it will go away. With this attitude it may stay.

Apathy demands a special treatment for it will not go away alone.

The treatment starts with a good dose of involvement followed by long periods of action.

It may be hard to get a confirmed apathetic to take the cure. And then it isn't permanent.

Action must be rewarded while apathy is to be condemned. Since it is easier to condemn than to praise, it stands to reason that apathy is here to stay. It is needed by those who would rather condemn that act.

Apathy has a lot going for it, but action is more fun. It must be. Have you ever heard anyone say, "Let's go where the apathy is?"

THE FACTS urges registered voters to vote.

Special Recognition

One of the greatest black Americans ever to appear on the sports scene is Rubin "Hurricane" Carter. For eight years now, this one-time middleweight contender has been languishing in the New Jersey prison system on trumped-up murder charges.

In fact, key witnesses against Carter recanted their testimony, saying that they had been promised leniency for other crimes if only they would testify against Carter.

Yet, "Hurricane" Carter remains in Trenton State prison, living in the hope of winning an appeal to be freed for a murder he did not commit so many years ago in Paterson, New Jersey.

During this time, Hurricane Carter became a greater man than he ever was in the fight ring, where he knocked out 21 opponents. He became a writer and a philosopher and a man who realized that he had been hounded for years by the police because he was outspoken on the subject of race relations.

It is the opinion of everyone I talked to about the case that there is no need for Hurricane Carter -- and the man convicted with him, John Artis -- to spend another night in Trenton prison. "Hurricane" Carter, who has so much to offer America, could walk free tomorrow if Gov. Brendan Byrne of New Jersey would sign a pardon immediately.

Americans of all races, black and white, will watch to see what Governor Byrne does. The time for him to act is now. Hurricane Carter and John Artis must be freed now. Gov. Byrne should pardon Hurricane Carter today.

Big Brother Wanted

A year is a long time when you're nine or ten years old. For triplets Diano, Chris and Cleveland, and their older brother Andre Sledge, the past year of waiting for their Big Brothers has seemed like an eternity.

But they are still hopeful and anxious, each looking forward to the time when he will have a man to play baseball with, go camping with or just talk to sometimes.

The boys, who live with their grandmother Mrs. Julia Balfour, have never known their father. Mrs. Balfour provides a warm, comfortable and loving home for the children, but to the boys even this cannot replace a male friend who would share their many interests with them.

At age nine, the triplets have a variety of activities in common which they would like to enjoy with a Big Brother. All of the boys are sports enthusiasts, with their favorites being baseball, football and swimming. Like most boys their age, the youngsters all like watching TV, especially sports events and cartoons.

Cleveland, the youngest of the three, is interested in some individual sports like boxing and lifting weights. He also likes going to the beach and going camping. Cleveland seems to enjoy school more than the others, with reading as his favorite subject.

Chris is a real outdoorsman who likes climbing trees, boating and camping. His other interests include painting pictures, working in wood shop and "learning about God." Chris, like the other boys, enjoys many activities offered at the Boys' Club near their home.

For Diano, enjoyment comes from going to fairs, mowing the grass and helping his grandmother in the kitchen and garden. Like Chris, he also likes to paint and work in the wood shop, as well as go boating and camping.

The older brother of the triplets, Andre, likes all sports but tempers his athletic nature with "learning," reading and helping his grandmother prepare the food and clean up. He is more musically inclined than the triplets and enjoys playing the clarinet.

According to Mrs. Balfour, the youngsters are not doing as well in school as they should and she feels that a Big Brother could help in this area by giving each boy the self-confidence and incentive to do his best. The situation is made more difficult for the children in that there are no other kids their age in the neighborhood to play with.

Big Brothers of Tacoma-Pierce County, a United Way agency, has been trying to find a Bir Brother for each boy since last year without success. "Most of our problem," Dick White, Executive Director of the agency, explained, "is that for the past year we have not had a sufficient number of inquiries to keep pace with the number of unassigned boys, especially in the Hilltop area where the need is so great."

The agency screens volunteer men carefully for compatible interests, geographical proximity and the ability to help individual boys who lack a male figure in their lives because of death of the father, divorce or other circumstances. The man must commit himself to at least a year of service to the child for a few hours a week.

These four delightful, outgoing youngsters, Diano, Chris, Cleveland and Andre, are each hoping that the right man will read this and volunteer to serve as his Big Brother. Any man interested in more information about the program is asked to call the Big Brothers office at 572-3211.

What is Prospect?

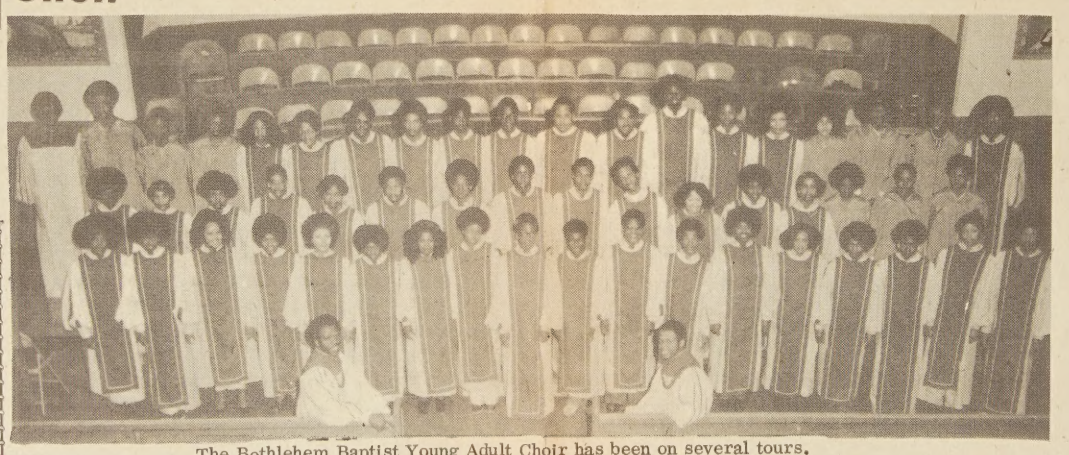
PROSPECT is a place where people learn and discover how to learn. PROSPECT has been formed by a group of parents and teachers searching for an alternative to the public education system. PROSPECT began by working with adults on basic skills and early this year began integrating children into the program as well. PROSPECT is now open to people of all ages. We are a small community now but we hope to grow larger as more and different people find a place to be themselves in PROSPECT.

PROSPECT consists of three main parts that are all inter-related. There is an open-ended learning environment where people are encouraged to discover what they want to learn and are provided with help in getting materials and resources. A second part is basic skills tutoring. Adults and children can receive individual and very specific help on the basic skills they need in order to survive in this country. We have people of all ages who are just learning to read and write and many who already know the basics but want to improve their skills. The third part of PROSPECT is what we call BASIC SURVIVAL AND PRE-VOCATIONAL skills. What this means is that we also offer help and tools for people to learn to build useful things for the home, fix things that are broken, grow plants, make crafts--all the things that people usually have to pay for. We want to help people learn to do those things for themselves.

PROSPECT will maintain an equal opportunity, non-discrimination policy. We will not discriminate against any person because of their race, color, creed, age, sex, handicap or any other thing. In fact, we have always had many different kinds of people involved in PROSPECT. We hope to have as many different kinds of people as there are people. After all, everyone is unique. We like it that way.

A gathering of prospective parents and students is set for this Saturday, August 30 at 2 p.m. Please call 627-3007 for more information.

Spotlight on Bethlehem Baptist Church Young Adult Choir



The Bethlehem Baptist Young Adult Choir has been on several tours. In 1974, they participated in Expo '74, which was an encouragement to lead them to better things and places. August 1st of this summer the choir went to California, where they sang in Oakland and Richmond. While there they toured the San Francisco, California Bay Area. The choir really touched many souls there. They left California with their songs still ringing.

The choir also was in concert with one of the other most outstanding choirs, The Voices of Christ. This choir will soon be in our city in October. There will be further notice.

The Bethlehem Baptist Young Adult Choir has just released their album, "Bobby Brown and the Bethlehem Baptist Young Adult Choir: Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory." We hope that the people can get this album, for which the 'donation' is $6.00. They will be participating in Tacoma's first Musical and Religious Outdoor Festival at Lincoln Bowl on Sat., Aug. 30th at 2:00 p.m.

State Capital:	Honolulu on the island of Oahu
State Motto:	The life of the land is perpetuated in righteousness
State flower:	Hibiscus
State Bird:	Nene (Hawaiian Goose)
State tree:	Kukui (CANDLENUT)

Our 50th state lies about 2500 miles from the west coast of the United States in the Pacific ocean. It is about a 5 hour flight from seattle by commercial jet. There are eight major islands and over one hundred minor ones. The islands were probably settled by the polynesians between 700 to 750 A.D. They travel over 2000 miles in ocean canoes from island previouly settled.

Captain James Cook , british explorer was the first white to visit this island paradise in the year 1778. He called them "The Sandwich Islands". Captain Cook was killed in a fight with the natives that developed over the theft of a dory from his flag ship. As a result of this encounter with the white world the native population of Hawaii was nearly wiped out by venerial deseases not previously known to the polynesians.

During the next 100 years many american planters and ranchers moved into the islands, and whaling ships crowded her harbors. England and France tried to claim these islands, but Hawaii remained a free kingdom until 1893 when Queen Liliuokolani was overthrown and the United States was asked to annex the Hawaiian Islands. President Cleveland blocked this move because of the heavy involvement of americans in the overthrow of the queen. In 1894 Hawaii was organized as a republic with Sanford Dole as president. Finally in 1898 congress voted to annex the Islands as a territory of the United States. Hawaii became our 50th state August 21, 1959.

Hawaii among all the states has the most heterogeneous population, with Americans of polynesian, Asian, African and European extraction.

The major sources of income are Defense expenditures, Tourism and pineapple production.

The Islands

OAHU

Known as "The Gathering Place"...it was once the meeting ground for the Hawaiian Kings. Oahu is the first landing place for most visitors. Here you'll discover the delights of Honolulu - the capital of Hawaii. HAWAII

The largest and southernmost island in the group, Hawaii is often called"The Big Island". Boasting the greatest array of natural wonders, it offers unique pleasures for everyone. And if you think you have seen beaches, try swimming at the fascinating Punaluu black sand beach of powdered lava! You can see the spot where the famous Captain Cook, met his end or visit the quaint Kona coast, the last stronghold of the old polynesia.

Hilo, capital of the island, is the Orchid Capital of the world. More than 22,000 varieties of this delicate flower are grown here.

Kauai

Called the "Garden Island", Kauai is truly a South Sea paradise. It is considered by many to be the most beautiful of all the islands. On Kauai you will see the spectacularly colorful Waimea Canyon....the Grand Canyon of the Pacific. You'll discover beaches of such perfection that they're regularly filmed for "South Seas" movie. Enjoy an enchanting boat trip down the Wailua River to the beautiful Fern Grotto, or visit the fish ponds of Niumalu and Alokoko and the Loloa Plantation gardens. Such an enchanting IslaND SHOULD NOT BE MISSED.

10 Black Members of Congress Warn Against 'Morally Untenable' Attempt to Bar Israel

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Ten Black members of Congress this week said they were "shocked" by what they called the "morally untenable" efforts by Arab nations to suspend Israel from the upcoming U.N. General Assembly session.

In a statement, the 10 representatives urged the Administration and Congress "to call upon the nations of the world to desist from attempts to suspend Israel," warning that such suspension would "contribute to the likelihood of conflict in the region, just as negotiations are at their most critical stage."

Signing the statement were: Representatives Yvonne B. Burke of California, William Clay of,Missouri, Shirley Chisholm of New York, Cardiss Collins of Illinois, Harold E. Ford of Tennessee, Barbara Jordan of Texas, Ralph H. Metcalfe of Illinois, Charles Rangel of New Yor, and Andrew Young of Georgia, and Walter E. Fauntroy, delegate to Congress of the District of Columbia.

The full text of the statement follows:

Statement on Israel and the United Nations

It has become apparent that in violation of the principles on which the UN was founded, the Arab nations may lead an attempt to suspend Israel from the UN General Assembly this fall.

We the undersigned are shocked by this effort to ostracize this small, Democratic nation from this international body. The suspension of Israel would not only be morally untenable, but would also contribute to the likelihood of conflict in the region, just as negotiations are at their most critical stage.

As we noted in October 1973, we are struck by the similarities between the position of the people of Israel and that of the oppressed black peoples of South Africa. Just as the Southern African liberation movements seek the right of self-determination and nationhood for the oppressed black majority, the state of Israel fights for the same rights for the Jewish people. If we support the fight of our black brothers in South Africa to overcome the territorial oppression upon them by a colonial regime and established their rightful national identities, we support the struggle if Israel to keep alive its own national identity. As we oppose the business interests whose political influence make U.S. policy toward Africa dependent upon economic rather than moral considerations, we oppose the same interests who seek to weaken our support for Israel because of Arab oil.

We recall the friendship of the U.S. for Israel ever since its birth as a nation, and its entry into the United Nations. We reiterate the words of the late Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. uttered just ten days before his death:

> I think it is necessary to say that what is basic and what is needed in the Middle East is peace....Peace for Israel means security, and we must stand with all our might to protect its right to exist, its territorial integrity and the right to use whatever sea lanes it needs. Israel is one of the great outposts of democracy in the world, and a marvelous example of what can be done, how desert land can be transformed into an oasis of brotherhood and democracy. Peace for Israel means security and that security must be a reality.

We ask theAdministration and the Congress to call upon the nations of the world to desist from attempts to suspend Israel. If such attempts succeed, we believe the U.S. and many other nations will be forced to reasses the basis of their membership in the United Nations. This would bring to an end the bright promise of an organization which once offered so much hope for mankind.

Rights Agency Steps Up Housing Bias Enforcement

The Washington State Human Rights Commission is preparing to intensify its efforts to eliminate racial discrimination in real estate transactions, according to Bill W. Hilliard, the Commission's Executive Secretary.

Hilliard cites strong evidence of wide-spread and pervasive discrimination in the rental and sales market as the cause for a "hard-line" directive to his staff of investigators, conciliators, and attorneys.

"We have engaged in major investigations of housing operations recently and have found, particularly in the case of rentals, that an alarming number of landlords and realtors are operating as if there were no laws prohibiting discrimination", commented Hilliard.

He attributed part of the problem to a general tightening of the housing market.

"Increased competition for units", he said, "produces a condition where housing operators may pick and choose their tenants - and too often racial prejudice influences their selection."

To combat what he terms "a housing discrimination plague", Hilliard has ordered that the following action be taken:

-a prioritization of housing complaints for investigation, Extensive "testing" is to be used (sending, for example, white and black checkers to compare treatment when attempting to rent or buy);

-a hard line in conciliation. The Commission's staff will seek sizeable monetary awards and extensive remedial measure to eliminate and prevent discrimination.

-increased litigation. The Commission will give priority to housing discrimination cases for litigation. Those cases not settled through conciliation will be quickly brought to hearing. Some cases throughout the state have already been docketed for formal hearing;

-the issuance of Commission initiated complaints to deal with broad patterns of discrimination. In the last month two large apartment complexes and a property management firm have been charged with committing multiple counts of unfair practices.

-further development of cooperative efforts with other governmental agencies for disciplining violators, e.g., the real estate licensing division, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and local civil rights agencies.

Something To Think About

BY Barbara Henderson

By Barbara Henderson

Words are a way of communication. They are a way to let people know where you're coming from. They are a way to tell Mom that you've gone to play basketball so that she'll know where you are.

Some talking can stop wars and some can start them. Harsh and sharp words can hurt. Kind, passionate words usually bring about love and understanding. Gossip brings about rumor and falsity. Lectures and speeches sometimes give knowledge. And we all know that bickering and arguing brings about discomfort. Words are funny, because sometimes people talk over people's heads and there is no kind of understanding between the two.

There is one thing that really annoys me - a very talkative person. I mean talk is a way of expressing yourself and your feelings, but there ain't that much talking in the world. When people start talking just to make noise, then it's cheap. But talk isn't cheap - or is it? Words are important. But who was it that said, "Actions speak louder than words"? Think about it.

'Getting The Word Out'

What education is practical for minorities?

What responsibilities do employers, individuals and educational institutions have in improving the economic position of minority groups?

These and other questions will be addressed at a Town Hall meeting entitled "Getting the Word Out' Thursday, September 4, 1975 from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Shiloh Baptist Church, 1211 South Eye Street.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide an experience whereby diverse groups of community citizens will come together to discuss Education and Employment issues that concern minority people in Tacoma Pierce County and to develop and present alternative solutions.

Getting the Word Out is one of a series of Town Hall meetings of the project, Community Contract: Dangers and Opportunities sponsored by Tacoma Community College and co-sponsored by Tacoma Pierce County YWCA, N.O.W., Minority Concerns Task Force, Pierce County Legal Assistance Foundation and Women's Political Caucus and supported in part by the Washington Commission for the Humanities.

Child care will be provided at St. John's Baptist Church, 2001 So. Jay Street. Complimentary snacks provided by Eta Mu Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

The Black Businessman of the Week

The Black Businessmen's Association is proud to present their choice of Businessman of the Week of September 1, 1975. SGT. Albert Turner, (USA Ret.) of 3709 S."M" St. Proprietor of TURNER'S GARAGE at 901 S. 11th St., Tacoma, Wash.

This is the success story of how one man channeled his natural apptitude into a money-making enterprise.

He was born in East St. Louis, Ill. and grew up in Chicago. He's married and has 5 children. He's a member of Shiloh Baptist Church and the Black Businessmen's Association. Baseball is his favorite pasttime, He used to play first base. He's been a trained mechanic for 28 years. As a youth he like to tinker around with cars. He joined the Army and did a couple of repair jobs during his early service, then his superiors assigned him to repairs and maintenance. He received training in the Army from the prescribed Army Manuals. He held a Mechanical M.O.S. for 18 years. He retired in 1964 after 21 years of service.

Jobs were scarce in 1961 so he used his own savings to open up a garage at S. 23rd and Kay, later he moved to his present location.

TURNER'S GARAGE offers complete automotive repairs, from tune-ups to overhauling, along with complete brake, electrical, and exhaust services. His equipment includes: AMCO Drum Lathes, Valve Grinders, Alternator-Generator Testers, a grease rack, and an engine analyzer.

He believes that a good mechanic must have patience and a willingness to take instructions. He'd like to see black youth take more initiative to help themselves instead of waiting for someone else to help him. One method he suggest is for local youth to contact those already in business and be willing to work for them in order to get training that will enable them to make a living.
